Introducing our New Interior Designer

Come into the store and meet Sherry Evans, our new Interior Designer. Sherry has been working in Residential and Small Commercial Interior Design for over 14 years. She will be expanding the showroom's offerings in window treatments and will be available as an in- house interior design consultant.

There will be additions to the product line, and new changes in the look of the showroom – come in and check out what's new, and meet Sherry!

Like the rest of the staff at Floor Covering Express, Sherry can help you select from a wide selection of window treatments, flooring, solid surface countertops and tile. Her expertise will make your decision making easy, and help ensure that your project goes smoothly and efficiently.

In combination with the professional team at Floor Covering Express, you can be assured that the updates you make will be an outstanding improvement to your home or office.

No design works unless it embodies ideas that are held common by the people for whom the object is intended.
